[From the Baltimore American, 23d.] Proceedings of the Y. M. C. A. International Convention.

Four hundred and Bity-six delegates to the International Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association had arrived yesterday. The Association building on north Charles street looked like a great botel, with stacks of valises in the secretary's office and crowds of men coming in and going out all day long. There were pages at the foot of the stairs to carry up luggage, preparatory to transportation to residence and hotels, and flower-decked tables, laden with good things, were spread in the hall overhead, where some of the Christian ladies of the city served dinner and luncheon. It is a long time since such a fine-looking body of men has been seen in Baltimore as met in the morning at Mount Vernon church, where the sessions are held. Many of them are representa-tive men of wealth and social influence in the cities to which they belong. In it are such men as John Wanamaker, the great Philadelphia clothier; Russell Sturgis, one of Boston's wealthiest citizens; Hon. Cephas Brainerd, a leading New York lawyer and a descendant of the great Missionary Brainerd; E. D. Noyes, one of the most successful merchants in the State of Minnesota; the temperance leader of national fame, H. D. Smith, of Plantsville, Conn.; Joseph Hardie, of Selma, Ala, the largest cotton-factor there-a fine and racy speaker; Richard C. Morse, of New York, the acknowledged head of the United Christian Asso ciations in America; H. Thanc Miller, a prominent citizen of Cincinnati, who thrill the Convention by his sweet singing; W. K. Jennings, a prominent lawyer of Patsburgh; Hon. John McDonald, a member of the Canadian Parliament; and W. G. Marsh, of Melbourne, Australia, the Association leader of tunt continent. It is two years since the Convention met last, and yet in it from all sections of country are almost all the same men who then led in the discussions, some of them veterans of ten and twenty years' experience in the work. Four former presidents occupy seats as delegates. The president elected on Wednesday, Mr. D. L. Moody, is the most distinguished Christian layman engaged in evangelical work on either continent. All the officers are laymen, and the few clergymen in the Convention do not come to the front at all except for an occasional prayer or benediction. Although the majority of delegates belong to the learned professions, there is yet no lack of representatives of the mechanical and artisan classes, who make themselves heard on subjects concerning their respective associations. Railroad-men college students, commercial travellers, and representatives of many practical occupapations, are present in large numbers, each, as the saying is, with an "axe to grind" for the edification and moral advancement of his fellows. The practical character of Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand the men in the Convention, and the expedi-

AUCTION SALES .- Future Days. By Robert B. Lyne, Real Estate Agent and Auctioneer, 1212 Main street, Richmond, Va.

GRAND HOTEL PROPERTY

IN RICHMOND, VA., WITH FURNITURE, FIXTURES, HORSES, OM-NIBUSES, AND EVERYTHING COM-PLETE FOR THE BUSINESS. FRONTING CAPITOL STREET AND CAPITOL SQUARE, ON NINTH STREET, THE LOVELIEST SPOT IN THE SOUTH, FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

By request of Messrs. Hunter & Pendleton, owners of the "ST. CLAIRE HOTEL," located on the northwest corner of Grace and Ninth streets, and now doing a large and rapidly-increasing business, with a reputation equal to any hotel in Richmond, I shall sell by public auction, upon the premises, on THURSDAY THE 29TH DAY OF MAY, 1879. AT 12 O'CLOCK M..

the Hotel as above described, with a front on Grace street of 88 3-12 feet and on Ninth street 163 4-12 feet, with a depth of 130 feet on its north line, and a width on its rear of 73 3-12 feet. The Hotel is a partly four stories and partly three stories above basement. Contains SIXTY-TRREE ROOMS. The partly four stories and partly three stories above basement. Contains SIXTY-THREE ROOMS. The FRAME DWELLING adjoining, and fronting on Ninth street, which is included in the sale, contains seven rooms, kitchen, laundry, zervants' spartments, stable, carriage-house, &c., &c., situated in the geographical centre of the city, in front of the State Capitol Square, with an elevation insuring healthful air and flue views of the surrounding country. This is justly considered the MOST DESIRABLE POSITION FOR A HOTEL in Richmond, located as it is on one of the great thoroughfares of the city, where street-cars are passing every few minutes, and within a few squares of the post-office, custom-house, and all public places, and yet withal in a quiet and delightful locality, where property is steadily and continually improving in value. The sale of this property should commend itself to men of capital, and to hotel men at large, who may desire now to secure permanently the location the best and most desirable of all others for that business in Richmond and in the entire for that business in Richmond and in the entir South.

The FURNITURE is comparatively new, and is of good modern style—such as is usually found in a first-class hotel.

The flatures, &c., required for the hotel business will be included in sale—such as chinaware, &c., &c.

The owners have concluded to sell positively on the day named. Parties may attend expecting to see the safe made on the day named.

THE TERMS WILL BE MADE EXCEEDING-LY LIBERAL. AND WILL BE ANNOUNCED FULLY ON DAY AND HOUR OF SALE.

ROBERT B. LYNE, Auctioneer.

ROBERT B. LYNE, Auctioneer. N. B.—This advertisement will not in any way interfere with the business of the Hotel, and our friends and patrons will be made as comfortable and taken as good care of as heretofore.

and immediately in rear of property recently purchased by the railroad company.

The lots on Marshall street are each 32x143½ feet to an aliey.

In no part of the city has there been so much improvement in the grades of the streets as in the vieinity of these lots, and the most of them lie as beautifully as could be desired. This, together with the location of the depots and the growth of business in that direction, gives to the property a prospect of value at no distant day that will well repay an investment made at the present depressed rates. A little money invested here must prove more producible than in many of the securities so eagerly sought after at high prices.
